

Images showing preparations for the Carne of Mourning and the display of objects invoking Earth.

Location of the Carne – in center of chair circle

Found organic objects and representational objects collected and displayed for both community building exercise and Carne of Mourning. These were distributed around the room and set up before participants entered. Alternatively, they can be collected on the spot from outdoor area if the location, timing and weather permit.

