

Copyright red-feniks, courtesy of Shutterstock.com

Community Conversation on Climate Change

Climate change may be one of the most urgent issues of our time. What is ours as Christians to do? Join us for a series of conversations featuring expert speakers, small group discussions, and moderated Q&A. All are welcome!

How Can Our Christian Faith Guide Our Response to Climate Change?

Sunday, April 28, 6:30-8:30 pm

Sr. Rose Marie Tresp, RSM, climate ambassador with the Catholic Coalition on Climate Change

The State of Climate Change Science and Policy

Monday, May 6, 7-9 pm

Tim Profeta, director, Nicholas Institute for Environmental Policy Solutions, Duke University

Bill Chameides, dean and Nicholas Professor of the Environment, Duke University

Individual and Political Climate Change Solutions: What Can You Do?

Wednesday, May 29, 7-9 pm

Steve Kalland, executive director, North Carolina Solar Center

Fr. Jacek Orzechowski, OFM, Franciscan Action Network

Sam Pearsall, senior scientist (retired), Environmental Defense Fund

Kathy Shea, M.D., North Carolina Interfaith Power & Light

"Let us be protectors of creation, protectors of God's plan inscribed in nature, protectors of one another and of the environment."

-Pope Francis, inaugural homily

RSVP to sheila.read@stfrancisraleigh.org.
For more info, see http://bit.ly/climate_sfa.

NCIPL

North Carolina
Interfaith Power & Light

The Catholic Community of St. Francis of Assisi, Anthony Hall, Founders Room, 11401 Leesville Rd., Raleigh