

We made garlands for each other from local clippings and greens. It was great fun and added lots of gaiety to our Celebration!